

Books... and beyond!

A sampling of programs supported by OVLFF dollars in 2008...

For Children

- Preschool Storytimes
- Homework Centers four days a week when school is in session
- Summer Reading Program (SRP)
- Special programs and events: Dia de los Ninos, Dia de los Libros, Beatrix Potter Day, Collaboration with Neighborhoods For Learning outreach programs
- Children's and young adult fiction and nonfiction books, magazines, audio books, videos and DVDs and books for beginning readers
- Secret Garden area for special children's programs at Ojai Library

For Teens

- Homework help four days a week when school is in session
- Summer Reading Program and other programs of interest to teens

For Seniors

- Meaningful volunteer opportunities
- Programs and speakers of interest to seniors

For Artists/Crafts People

- New Van Dyke Reading Room and Gallery at Ojai Library
- Knitting Club at Ojai Library
- Craft programs for children and teens

For Disabled Adults and Adult Learners

- Weekly DDA Library Club
- Homebound Delivery Program

Cultural Offerings

- Monthly Adult Book Discussion
- Book talks, concerts, and informational programs

Community-Building

- Purchase, preservation and re-use of Edward Libbey's historic land office (Twice-Sold Tales Book Store)
- Display areas for posters, flyers, and handouts
- Magazine recycling service at Ojai Library
- Book recycling service (Twice-Sold Tales Book Store)
- Computer ink cartridge recycling service
- Community-wide programs such as Beatrix Potter Day

Technology

- Dedicated laptop computers for the Homework Centers

For Readers

- Constantly refreshed collections of fiction and nonfiction books and audiobooks, maintained and supported by professional librarians
- Twice-Sold Tales Book Store
- Real Good Reads – online readers' advisory blog

For Adult Volunteers

- Interesting volunteer opportunities at the libraries, Twice-Sold Tales Book Store, and three SchooLinks Homework Centers